Gentlemen.

I do not want to sell my coins and fractional five cent note at price you make me and you may return them and I will return the two gold dollars in this letter; as I do not care very much for them;

Of course I want you to keep the four dimes I sent to you but return return the 5^c fractional note and the 1793 and 1794 coins;
and I enclose you New York draft to balance

our account for ($14.29) fourteen dollars and twenty nine cents;

I charge you to ~~add~~ postage one way 15 cents which I trust you will agree is right; I am in need of American half cents and 1873 two cent and nickel three cent pieces;

I am yours res

Gentlemen,

Is there not a miss
take about my bid on 658?
I do not recollect such a bid;
I will remit you an receipt of a reply!

I am sorry you have sent the other pieces you mention on approval ^{because} as you will notice ^{by my letter keeping} I am travelling and will not be home for some time to look them over! and it might be I would be glad to purchase some or all of them if I had them in hand! Please let me know your wishes in regard to them and address me at Louisville

Gentlemen, I am just in receipt of this letter forwarded from my home Fredonia, and as I wrote you before you were traveling and have been ever since you sent the coins part of which you will remember were not ordered by me but you sent them for my approval. I will now be home very soon and will give them my attention as soon as I arrive there and will remit you at once for all I keep besides the $9.59 I am sorry there has been so much delay. Yours truly W. M. Gibbs

Gentlemen,

I am just at home and have been over the Cains you mailed me for approval;

I am sorry for this long delay but it is no fault of mine I can assure you as I am traveling all the time selling cut glass and have not had the opportunity to look the Cains over before this time and the delay may place me in a bad light to you as you can not fully understand how my time has been taken;

I am also sorry not to be able to use more of the Lains after so long a delay, and you can readily see from what I write that it is hardly wise on account of my being away from home to send me Lains an ^{approval} of $100.

I am now to be home until January 1904 but I am anxious to pay you what I am owing you and trust you will give me a prompt ~~exp. of~~ reply when I will mail you a check at once to balance our account.

I owe you for Lains bought $959 then I have selected ~~one~~ from these sent an approval 665-20 - 851-200 - 845-200 1805 cent 100 and 1793 Chain cent 400 and it is easy for me to

owing you ($18.79) ^{dollars} eighteen, and seventy nine cents and I might return balance of Coins and check to balance account, and my only reason for not doing so is that I am over stacked ^{two} 1794 cents and one 1798 cent which I bought of you but I have lost the numbers; the 1798 is poor 1-1794 is poor other 1794 is ^{fine} both with lettered edges; What will you allow me for them and I return them with other Coins?
If I am not allowed about their value I will return the two gold dollars;

(4)
I have also four extra 10 cent silver pieces of 1895-Special dies; what can you allow me for them?
Please reply at once and oblige-

Yours James Kemp

Gentlemen,

I return your coins
and you will find enclosed 4 silver dimes; kindly let me know what you allowed for them and for 2-1794 pennies and 1-1798 penny; the dimes are special dies with no special value but think they contain some extra value;
On receipt of your reply
I will remit you amount to balance account.

Yours yours Resp
